WELCOME TO OUR TOP 100 SITES 2020!

IT'S ALWAYS fascinating putting together this annual Top 100 Sites Guide and finding out who you, the readers (the experts!), have selected as your favourite touring parks. Many sites have featured in the Top 100 before and it's great to see them maintaining their standards and popularity with the voters, but of course, it's good to see a few new ones too. So congrats to all, especially those who have secured the Regional Winner spots.

The regions we cover, and for that much, the sites within them, vary wildly, from small, rural retreats for adults only, to large facilities-drenched behemoths providing fun for all the family. However, different though the campsites might be, your core expectations remain largely the same – excellent customer service, clean, functioning facilities and a beautiful location. Fortunately, all 100 sites here not only match but exceed those expectations.

In association with our sponsor Green Flag, we've produced this excellent guide and selected an Overall Winner by combining your votes with the views of our expert panel. It's great to see one of the smaller sites receiving some well-deserved recognition.

We've divided the guide into 12 regions, all of which have their own flavour and character – from the sweeping majesty of the Highlands wilderness to the classic coves and bays of the West Country. I hope the entries here will inspire you to visit some of these wonderful holiday destinations.

Happy touring!

Touring essentials with MAYDAY UK Breakdown Cover

Be prepared before you hit the road and you'll have the adventure that you're dreaming of!

We have all been there – rushing to get away in the caravan, motorhome, or campervan on a Friday night, only to find that something crucial has been left behind at home. It could even be something small – but just important enough to niggle during your time spent away on holiday.

When planning for your holiday, you won't want anything to spoil your dream break – so here's a handy list of things you mustn't forget before heading out on your next big adventure.

MAYDAY UK Breakdown Cover
Breaking down when you're on tour is frustrating at the best of times, but particularly so when you're driving a caravan, motorhome or campervan – many providers won't cover you if you're driving a large vehicle or towing a caravan.

You need a breakdown service that you can trust, which is where MAYDAY UK Breakdown Cover comes in. From £74* a year, it's specially designed for owners of caravans, motorhomes and campervans, meaning you can rest easy knowing that you're in good hands if your vehicle breaks down.

Whichever cover option you go for, you'll receive unlimited callouts 24/7, 365 days a year. We cover all cars, caravans and motorhomes, (within UK legal towing guidelines) and even motorbikes.

What's more, you'll be covered whatever the weather, from snow to floods or mud, without charging you any extra when specialist equipment is required. And if you accidentally misfuel your vehicle, we'll be there to help.

Caravan and Motorhome Club membership cards

Caravan and Motorhome Club membership gives you access to 2700 campsites around the UK and mainland Europe. There's also a host of other benefits to enjoy, including money saving on your stay, financial services, great savings from the Club shop and on days out, expert advice and much more.

Northern Ireland

Giants and dragons make a visit here a magical experience

NOW FAMOUS as a filming venue for Game Of Thrones and for the iconic Titanic Belfast with its six floors of exhibits, Northern Ireland has reinvented its tourism for the 21st century.

Nevertheless, visitors will find it's the region's natural wonders that truly endure. Take a tour of the province and you'll be able to enjoy both the exquisite landscapes and the modern attractions.

Start a trip at the Delamont Country Park before heading for the capital Belfast and the evocative Titanic experience. Journey south to Sandilands for the Mourne Mountains and exquisite beaches. Then head west for Rushin House and the Fermanagh Lakelands. Finally, turn north to the rugged shores of North Antrim and be sure to stop and take in the curious magnificence of the columns of the Giant Causeway - truly the stuff of legend!

We say...

Perfectly placed to enjoy several of Northern Ireland's most popular attractions, including the Giant's Causeway, Ballyness Caravan Park has plenty to recommend it. And it's not just location that makes it worthy of the title Regional Winner.

Dog-lovers will delight in the eight-acre dog walk, where they can exercise their pooches to their heart's content. And a football field, play area and indoor games room should keep the children happy.

Hardstanding pitches are laid out across three areas, one near a pond surrounded by trees and the other two near the play area, which will suit families. All pitches have electric, water and drainage points, and there is the added bonus of free Wi-Fi and a solar panel garden supplying the electricity.

The heated washblock includes wet-room showers, dishwashing facilities, baby changing and family rooms, laundry and facilities for the disabled.

Scotland

Take in the glorious culture, castles and beautiful views

THE LANDSCAPES IN Scotland are diverse and stunning, making it an exciting region to tour in. This year sees the country pay special attention to the unrivalled coastline, rivers, canals and lochs as part of the Year of Coasts & Waters 2020. These things are an intrinsic part of the Scottish way of life and offer some of the most impressive scenery in the UK, including Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park, and Dumfries and Galloway's sandy beaches.

Scotland is also a land full of unique traditions and experiences, from Hogmanay celebrations and Highland Games to throwbacks to the Celtic, pagan and Viking influences that permeate the culture, such as Up Helly Aa.

With 700-plus islands, castles galore, and the awe-inspiring Highlands, there's more than enough to make for a memorable tour. Both Edinburgh and Glasgow offer vibrant city breaks and are easily accessible via the M8, while driving routes such as the North Coast 500 promise ever-changing scenery.

We say...

The votes from our readers are echoed by the Scottish Tourist Board's five-star rating, and it's not hard to see why. This family-owned park has an adults-only touring section as well as a static section.

Choose between grass and hardstanding pitches, all of which are immaculately kept and equipped with 16A hook-up. Most have satellite TV connections, and some also boast water and waste-water drainage. On arrival, you'll be escorted to your pitch and help siting your van is available.

The amenities block – which includes reception, a shop, a laundry room and a washroom with cubicles for showers and basins – has recently been renovated.

Myrus is a great base for exploring the area's stunning coastline, with the towns of Banff and Macduff nearby, two golf courses on hand and much more.

You say...

"I was impressed by the pride the owners took in the site. The facilities are modern and spotlessly clean, and the grounds well maintained. There is also a nice sense of space on site."

"Beautifully kept, quiet site. Toilets and showers are of a high standard. The site is well placed for an easy commute to historical buildings and beaches."

A BIG FAVOURITE with our readers, Wales might be a small country but it punches well above its weight when it comes to natural attractions, with everything from mountain peaks to glorious beaches and craggy coastal headlands.

Whether you're looking for a simple bucket-and-spade break or an adventurous, adrenaline-pumping weekend, this is the place to be.

Visit Wales is promoting 2020 as the Year of the Outdoors and it's easy to see why. With 870 miles of coastline to explore, you are never far from outstanding walks. There are also three National Parks to enjoy - Snowdonia, Brecon Beacons and Pembrokeshire Coast - for walks, cycle trails and wildlife spotting.

If that's not enough excitement, thrill-seekers can search out Europe's longest zip wire or go surfing at the inland Surf Snowdonia wave lagoon. Scuba diving, pot holing and coastering are just a few of the other adventures awaiting you.

North-East England

Relax and enjoy the coastline, castles and rugged landscapes

THE NORTH-EAST IS clearly extending its appeal, with 11 campsites making it into this year's Top 100.

There's a lot to love. Vast, wild, craggy, remote areas of the National Parks contrast with the bright lights of Newcastle, Sunderland, Middlesbrough, Leeds and York. The varied coastline is home to some wonderful wildlife, defensive fortresses and Victorian seaside resorts.

Northumberland is the most northerly county in England and the least densely populated; much is taken up by the Northumberland National Park. Its coast is home to gems like the Holy Island of Lindisfarne and Bamburgh Castle, while inland, you can trace the ancient battlefields of Romans and Picts along Hadrian's Wall.

In Yorkshire, explore the wonderful seaside resorts of Scarborough and Filey, or stray inland to walk the Howardian Hills, the North York Moors and the Yorkshire Wolds.

North-West England

Lakes, mountains and beaches
or city lights, you choose

DID YOU KNOW, the North-West of England is the third most populated region of the UK after the South-East and Greater London? It's home to the vibrant cities of Manchester and Liverpool, as well as the bright lights of Blackpool and the ancient city of Chester. It also boasts some of the most beautiful scenery in the country.

The mountain peaks and fells surrounding the breathtaking lakes of Cumbria have been beguiling visitors and writers for many decades. Lakes can be explored by steam cruise and row boat, while there are plenty of written guides on walking the fells.

Lancashire is well known for its great Victorian seaside resorts and the Forest of Bowland Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, while Cheshire is home to beautiful gardens, stately homes and one of the country's top zoos.

The North-West also has a great maritime and industrial heritage, so as well as its really stunning landscapes, there's a wealth of history to explore.

We say...

Holgates' flagship site is a worthy winner this year, and it is testament to the way this organisation has come along that another of their sites, Bay View, also made it in to our Top 100. The concept is simple – give the guests a holiday experience, rather than a simple campsite, with entertainment, restaurants, sports facilities (there's even a bowling alley on site) and top-notch amenities for all.

The fact that they're located in the phenomenal Lancashire landscape surrounding Morecambe adds a little magic to the mix, lifting it well above the ordinary.

You say...

"Ideal for families and couples."

"Best looked-after site in the whole region – facilities always spotless when we visit."

Eastern England

Natural wonders mixed with historical and cultural interest

WIDE SANDY BEACHES with expansive vistas, cycle-friendly topography and an abundance of interesting wildlife make the East of England a natural choice for tourists.

Check out the nature reserves around the Wash en route to King's Lynn and Sandringham, then go on to the North Norfolk Coast Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Here you'll find beautiful villages, abundant bird life and, at Blakeney Point, seals.

Nature lovers will also enjoy a trip to Dedham Vale on the Essex/Suffolk border, an area made famous by the Romantic landscape paintings of John Constable.

Visit medieval Lincoln, for its fine castle and cathedral, and for more architectural splendour, don't miss Felbrigg and Holkham Halls.

Keen gardeners should be sure to visit The Beth Chatto Gardens at Elmstead, and foodies will revel in a visit to Mersea island, just off the Essex coast, famed for its delicious oysters.

WHAT'S ON IN THE HEART OF ENGLAND

Check out some of the fantastic events taking place this year!

All year Ironbridge Gorge Museum

The story is so important that in 1986, this was made a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Discover what it was like to live in Queen Victoria's time, at Blists Hill Victorian Town, learn about science and engineering at Enginuity, and find out how iron was extracted and used at the Coalbrookdale Museum of Iron.

You could easily spend a week here, or make return visits with annual tickets.

31 July - 2 August Dog Lovers Festival

Why do many of us just love touring? Because we can take our dogs along, too. The Dog Lovers Festival, held at the Elvaston Showground in Derbyshire, has to be one of the most dog-friendly music festivals. Stalls sell dog treats and toys, lotions and potions, and harnesses. There will be advice on training, and adopting a puppy, plus dog activities such as lure chasing, steeplechase, hide and seek, doggie dip and dog shows. Details and tickets are on the website.

Web www.dogloversfestival.org

All year (closed 24-26 December) National Space Centre

Explore the possibilities of space travel in the six galleries at Leicester's National Space Centre (pictured above). Here you will find rockets, satellites, space suits and meteorites, plus a planetarium. The Rocket Tower houses the Blue Streak and Thor-Able rockets. The centre has a programme of events for the whole family taking place throughout the year, so it's well worth keeping an eye on the website for more information.

19-21 June Cheltenham Balloon Fiesta

Cheltenham racecourse is the place to be for a fantastic display of hot air balloons hovering over the track. Different events will take place over the three days, and you can buy tickets for one day or all three. Scheduled for Friday afternoon are balloons, tunes and fireworks at 4-11pm. Saturday is the balloon fiesta and Sunday is family fun day. There's live entertainment, local traders, food and drink stalls, and a giant funfair.

There's no place like home and that's exactly the vibe owners Chris and Katrina wanted to create when they bought this delightful site. The Welsh word 'cartref' means home.

The campsite welcomes families and couples – there's a separate adults-only section of 11 pitches for those looking for a more peaceful stay. The owners are experienced caravanners themselves and will happily help first-timers pitch and set up.

The amenities include a shop selling local produce, a bar offering local ales, award-winning toilets and showers, laundry, play area and a dog-exercise area.

Close to the border with Wales and a 15-minute drive from the medieval town of Shrewsbury, which has 600 listed buildings, the site sits in a beautiful, secluded location, not far off the A5 and A458 and close to the Shropshire Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and the Ironbridge Gorge museums. Ludlow, the pretty 'food capital' of Shropshire, is an hour's drive.

South-East England

There's more to the South-East than French connections

WHETHER YOU'RE PLANNING a forest, country or coastal break, you can find it all in the South-East, a region blessed with Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty - the Chilterns, the North Wessex Downs, the Surrey Hills and the High Weald - and two of the UK's newest National Parks, the New Forest and the South Downs.

This is the region that once bore the brunt of conflicts with Europe: its coastline is dotted with fortresses - the Cinque Ports make a fascinating tour and a visit to Dover Castle gives vivid detail of its part in the two world wars.

In peacetime it has been the home - Windsor and Hampton Court, as well as London - and playground of sovereigns. Brighton was a favourite of George IV, while Queen Victoria had a sumptuous summer palace built on the Isle of Wight.

The area is also developing a reputation for wine production, in addition to an established brewing industry - both make engaging visits.

This is camping for the 21st century – modern, stylish and unbelievably relaxing. You’ll never know what a difference such magnificent facilities can make to your touring life, until you visit this fine site. The bathrooms are better than those at home! Then just add in a level of attention to detail that’s phenomenal, genuinely heartfelt personal care during your stay, and a pleasant rural setting and what you get is 100% relaxation.

You’re within striking distance of the historic city of Chichester, with its shops and restaurants, the fine cathedral and the world-famous theatre, and you’re even closer to the harbour, with its sailing ships and tranquil waterside walk. Goodwood, Hayling Island and Bracklesham Bay are nearby, too.

And behind it all there’s real philosophy – someone has clearly thought to ask the question, “How good could camping be?” And answered it with, “Better than you ever imagined.” Bravo!

You say...

“Easily the best facilities I have ever seen.”

“Best. Campsite. Ever.”

“Astonishing – from the beautiful grounds to the seriously excellent dog-walk, everything about the site is perfect.”

“OMG what luxury – rain showers are amaaaazing, and the granite worktops look fabulous.”

“A proper bar, with cold beer on tap and a range of gins. I could get used to this.”

“The ratio of toilet blocks to pitches is impressive – as is the level of luxury once you get inside them.”

Explore the past through historic castles and unique geology

SEASIDE RESORTS, Hardy's Wessex, the Jurassic Coast... for a small county, Dorset manages to pack in a lot. Diminutive it may be, it nevertheless remains a favourite with tourers and campers, attracted by the mild climate, beautiful coastline and countryside, and quality camping sites.

On the coast, the fine resorts of Bournemouth and Poole dominate, while nearby Sandbanks has become a haunt of the rich and famous. Further west, you'll find Weymouth and the Isle of Portland flanked by Chesil Beach, the 18-mile shingle barrier which featured in Ian McEwan's famous novel.

This area is part of the Jurassic Coast, a UNESCO World Heritage Site famed for its geology and best characterised by the iconic Durdle Door rock formation, in the shape of an archway that juts out to sea near Lulworth Cove.

Move inland to explore the ruins of Corfe Castle and the many chocolate box villages throughout the county. The chalk depiction of a giant at Cerne Abbas also makes for an impressive view.

WHAT'S ON IN DORSET

Check out some of the fantastic events taking place this year!

2 January - 22 December
Abbotsbury Subtropical Gardens

Many folk know of the Abbotsbury Swannery (opens 14 March), home to a large colony of mute swans, but did you know about the beautiful subtropical gardens? During the 19th century, this was one of the finest plant collections in England. Today, following two world wars, destructive storms and a major restoration, the gardens have been restored to glory and are noted for their camellias, magnolias, rhododendrons and hydrangeas.

Web abbotsbury-tourism.co.uk

11 January - 20 December
Farmer Palmer's Farm Park

If you have young children in tow, they will love Falmer Palmer's Farm Park, which has been designed specifically for little ones, aged up to eight years. This is essentially a petting zoo, where children can watch cows being milked, feed lambs and goat kids, tickle a pig and cuddle a guinea pig. These activities are interspersed with time spent in indoor and outdoor play areas, and you can all catch your breath in the lively Hen House restaurant. Opening times and ticket prices are on the website, and you can even arrange a birthday party there, too!

Web farmerpalmers.co.uk

30 July - 2 August
Camp Bestival

The beautiful 17th-century Lulworth Castle is the venue for this popular family festival (pictured below). This year, the theme is 'Camp Bestival goes to the Movies', so you can expect westerns, sci-fi, thrillers, musicals and a whole lot more in its open-air cinema. There will also be sing-along film nights, acting workshops and screenwriting sessions. And there's camping, too, if you can't find a pitch at one of our fabulous Top 100 Dorset sites.

Web www.campbestival.net

27-31 August
Great Dorset Steam Fair

There's something positively majestic about steam-powered vehicles. These giants of yesteryear will be hauling huge loads and dragging ploughs at the village of Tarrant Hinton, and the children will love the steam-driven funfair. This spectacularly sprawling family event will feature 1920s-style stage shows, as well as vintage vehicles, heavy horses, country crafts and memorabilia. You'll also be able to browse and shop at more than 500 specialist trade stalls.

A land where mystical ley lines combine with medieval majesty

THIS REGION HAS what must be the best-known prehistoric monument in Europe - Stonehenge - and some of the finest Roman remains in the world, in the beautiful city of Bath.

Ancient stone circles at Avebury, Glastonbury Tor, mystical white horses carved into the hills, and the great medieval cathedrals at Salisbury and Wells will all fascinate historians.

Pull on your boots to walk among wild ponies on Exmoor, follow in the footsteps of poet Samuel Taylor Coleridge in the Quantock Hills, or hike the Mendips to Cheddar Gorge and Wookey Hole.

Weston-super-Mare and Minehead offer seaside family fun, while there's lots to entertain in Devizes, Marlborough, Chippenham and Trowbridge.

Bath brings the stories of Jane Austen to life in the elegance of its Georgian architecture, while in Bristol, history meets contemporary living, with Brunel's Clifton Suspension Bridge and SS Great Britain, and the vibrant regeneration of its wharf areas.

Devon

Enjoy wonderful walks across wild moors and sandy beaches

IMMORTALISED FOR MOST of us in Fawlty Towers as home to the English Riviera, and a real family favourite during the summer season, Devon holds a special place in many of our hearts – cream teas, sea fishing, crabbing, picturesque villages and fine sandy beaches, it is the stuff of memories.

The coastline dominates – the north coast is a magnet for surfers, drawn by the tidal range of the Bristol Channel and excellent beaches, such as the beautiful swathe of sand at Woolacombe. This stretch of coast is also the site of Clovelly, one of the prettiest villages in England.

Walkers will gravitate to Exmoor and Dartmoor, which straddle the interior of the county, while to the east are two Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty, the Blackdown Hills and East Devon.

The South West Coast Path will also attract keen hikers, who along the way, can pause at the lovely towns of Brixham, Salcombe and Torquay to enjoy refreshments and other seaside attractions.

Ladram Bay

Address Ladram Road, Otterton, Budleigh Salterton EX9 7BX Tel 01395 568 398

Web www.ladrambay.co.uk Open 13 March - 2 November Touring pitches 200

Pitch+2+hook-up £13-£59 Transport links Bus stop one mile, train station eight miles

We say...

How do you express the little differences that transform a Top 100 site into a regional winner? With Ladram Bay, it's easy. Not only is this a stunning location for a campsite, clinging to the cliff edge above Ladram Bay, so the views are amazing, but as one of our readers points out, this site has been going for a long time and improves every year.

An example: the swimming complex is impressive, but better is that you can leave your kids there with trained staff who'll give them starter lessons in zorbing, canoeing and other watersports. Then you can take them to the sheltered beach to try out their new skills.

There's great food, at reasonable prices, and a 'splash zone' for kids' watery fun. You won't be bored here.

You say...

"Clean, great food at the restaurants, amazing pool for the kids and great facilities."

"Fantastic views, excellent facilities, clean, safe and very friendly, with amazing staff."

"Been coming here since 1967, missing only 12 years when in the army, and I have only witnessed changes for the good in that time."

"It's close to a small beach which is very child-friendly - there's plenty to keep the kids busy."

"Love that it's still a family-run campsite - we had a great, chilled weekend."

"Everything about it is lovely - we're thinking of buying a dedicated pitch here, it is that impressive."

"The pool complex is particularly impressive and the beach is spotless. We cannot wait to stay here again."

WHAT'S ON IN DEVON

Check out some of the fantastic events taking place this year!

School holidays and weekends Tree Surfers

Your little monkeys (and you) can enjoy swinging through the trees on this exciting high ropes adventure course, at the Tamar Trails Centre near Tavistock (pictured right). The course of rope bridges, walkways, and zip wires takes two to three hours to traverse.

Entry requires a minimum height of 1.5m and there is a weight limit of 18 stone/115kg. For those under 1.5m, there's a special junior course for children aged four to 12 years. But if clambering among the branches isn't really your thing, you could always try your hand at archery instead. Web treesurfers.co.uk

16-17 May Devon Truck Show

Smeatharpe Stadium in the Blackdown Hills is the spot for this mighty monster truck show, now in its third year.

The family event features some 500 trucks, activities for the children, stunt shows, stock car demonstrations, bouncy castles and plenty of stalls. It promises to be very noisy and lots of fun. Web devontruckshow.co.uk

6-7 June English Riviera Airshow

Find a spot around Torbay where you can witness this fabulous free display of military and civilian aircraft. The programme includes displays by the Red Arrows, the RAF Typhoon Display Team, and the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight, featuring the Hurricane, Spitfire and Dakota. The airshow is free, but you might want to book a parking spot. Keep an eye out for event programme details and car parking ticket information. Web englishriviera.co.uk

8 September Widecombe Fair

This day-long village fair attracts many visitors from far and wide, who come to witness all kinds of traditional rural pursuits. Last year saw sheep-shearing competitions, a dog and duck display, terrier racing, Dartmoor Hawking, an Uncle Tom Copley Downhill Race and a tug of war. On view at the event will be tractors, vintage machinery, and lots of sheep and cattle.

In addition, there will be music, food and drink to enjoy – it promises to be an entertaining day. Find out more at the website. Web widecombefair.com

Cornwall

Cute fishing villages, romantic castles and alluring moors

THERE'S SOMETHING SLIGHTLY mystical about Cornwall, a touch of magic that comes partly from its position on the extreme west of the UK's south-west peninsula, surrounded by sea and moor – a place of romance and legend.

Take your pick from north or south coasts. Surfers will love the waves at Newquay, while art lovers will enjoy the galleries of St Ives, including Tate St Ives, and that wonderful crisp light that has attracted artists from around the globe.

Journey south for exquisite fishing villages at Mousehole and Mevagissey or take in a performance at the wonderful Minack Theatre, a beautiful amphitheatre carved into the rock above Porthcurno beach.

At Tintagel, you'll find the romantic ruins of the castle, forever associated with King Arthur, while at Padstow, you have a choice of fantastic fish restaurants. Finally, of course, there's the iconic Land's End and the wild majesty of Bodmin Moor.

Set back from the coastline in a wooded valley, this fantastic site is a previous winner.

Three miles away on the north coast is Porthtowan Beach, perfect for families and surfers.

The site has been kept as natural as possible. Hedgerows are left slightly ragged, and the grass isn’t manicured to within an inch of its life. There are lots of beautiful trees here, too.

You say...

“We had a fantastic stay at this site, which is well located for touring the county and is immaculately clean.”

“Beautiful setting, clean, tidy, freedom for children, extremely pleasant and helpful staff.”

“The location is lovely; very green and well presented.”

“The sandy beaches are amazing – perfect for visiting with our young family.”

We say...

This site on the Roseland Peninsula is perfect for walkers hoping to follow the South West Coast Path, and the coastal villages of St Mawes and Portsatho are nearby.

The tranquil park, which prides itself on its attention to detail, is set in 12 acres, and all of the pitches are individually hedged. It also has a dog walk/nature trail.

Silver Sands Holiday Park

Address Gwendreath, Lizard, Helston, Cornwall TR12 7LZ Tel 01326 290 631

Web www.silversandsholidaypark.co.uk Open All year Touring pitches 30

Pitch+2+hook-up £17.50-£21 Transport links Bus stop two miles

We say...

Green credentials, fantastic facilities and a wonderful location on the Lizard Peninsula make Silver Sands an understandable winner.

It's just a 1km walk through the Lizard Nature Reserve to the beaches of Kennack Sands, and the children can play pirates in Kynance Cove and the other secret coves that fringe Cornwall's most southerly stretch of coastline.

On the nine-acre site you'll find fantastic play areas for them, too, and families can get together around the picnic tables in the barbecue area or gather at a campfire (off the ground) on your pitch.

The site has a garden setting, with pitches arranged between trees and shrubs, creating a really friendly, unregimented feel. Amenities include a small shop, pristine washblock and laundry with ironing facilities.

The nearest pub to the site is at Kennack Sands, while other local hostelries - Trengilly Wartha Inn, and the dog-friendly Cadgwith Cove Inn and The Witchball - also serve good food and drink. Fun days out can be had at nearby Goonhilly Earth Station, Camel Farm at St Martin and Lizard RNLI Station.

You say...

"The location is fantastic, we loved the walk down to the beach with the children and our dog."

"A wonderful site for kids and a great base for exploring the local area."

"Kennack Sands beach is delightful and so close to the site, which was peaceful and exceptionally clean."

"The owners were wonderful - so helpful, they made us feel truly welcome."

CONCIERGE CAMPING

'The wooden café patio is a perfect sun trap on a lovely Sussex morning'

Imagine a caravan park where you can have boutique hotel-style washrooms more or less to yourself, if you can bear to drag yourself away from your fully serviced hardstanding pitch with fresh and waste water, TV satellite connection and Wi-Fi. Where an amazing cup of coffee in a pleasant wooden hut café with a sun trap patio is just a short walk away, and an award-winning pub is less than a mile outside.

Too good to be true? No, for this is what you will find at Concierge Camping, our 2020 Overall Winner.

The site, near Chichester in West Sussex, only has 27 pitches, so you won't have to fight over the on-site showers, with LED-lit cubicles, complimentary toiletries and granite-backed washstands.

The pitches, all hedged off for privacy, come in three sizes, too, with the largest – Emperor Pitches – including a safari tent with a log-burning stove and a fully equipped kitchen with a fridge, freezer and dishwasher. They also have decking, so you can leave your awning at home.

It's incredible to think that this caravan park, which lies on the Ratham Estate, is only five years old. The latest addition to the facilities is a sophisticated dog-washing area: owner Guy Hodgkin likes to point out that the campsite is not just "dog-tolerant", it is "dog-friendly".

The site does border the busy A27, so you do get some road noise, but you are also right on the edge of the South Downs National Park. And that pub we talked about? It's The Richmond Arms, a regular in both the Michelin Guide and the Waitrose Good Food Guide.
