WELCOME TO OUR TOP 100 SITES 2024!

This is our second year of editing the Top 100 Sites Guide and we continue to be blown away by the efforts UK campsites are making to ensure visitors have an enjoyable touring experience.

Heartiest congratulations to each site featuring in our guide. To make an appearance, these sites have been voted for by the people who stay there, before our team of experts go through the results and finalise the list.

These campsites are all going above and beyond to cater for every guest, whether that's supporting hobbies such as fishing, providing activities the whole family can enjoy, offering a peaceful adults-only setting, or ensuring canine companions receive a warm welcome.

Your insightful comments also highlight the importance of getting the basics right, from ensuring there are friendly staff and a great location, to having spacious pitches and spotless washrooms.

Many campsites are playing their part in aiding the natural world, providing environments that encourage wildlife to prosper, while owners put in every effort to look for eco-friendly ways to work.

If you've read our guide before, you'll spot some familiar faces, but there are plenty of newcomers too, spread across the 12 regions. Whether you want to take in the rugged beauty of Cornwall, the charming waterways of Eastern England or the delights of the Lake District, there's bound to be somewhere just right for you. Here's to a wonderful year of touring!

RIBBLE
RECOMMENDED RIDES

There are lots of fantastic cycling routes to enjoy across the UK – we’ve worked with Ribble Cycles to track down some of the best, which you’ll find throughout this guide! For full details about the routes featured, and other great trails across the UK, see www.sustrans.org.uk. To find out about Ribble Cycles, visit www.ribboncycles.co.uk.

Simply the best

You’re guaranteed a great stay at any one of our 100 parks, but some offer just that little bit more; our team has recognised this by awarding special ‘Best Site’ awards, for eco-friendliness, family-specific facilities and pet-friendliness. All of our Best Site winners have the relevant logo alongside their listing.

“As with your caravan, tow car or motorhome, you’ll want to go for a cycling brand name that you can trust. Which is why you should take a look at the latest range from UK manufacturer Ribble”

TOUR FURTHER THAN EVER WITH A RIBBLE E-BIKE!

You've got your caravan, motorhome or tent sorted – now all you need is easy transport from your favourite campsite! Fortunately, Ribble Cycles is on hand with the latest e-bikes to improve your travels

We've all been there – recently arrived at your campsite, only to open the fridge and discover that you're out of milk. You could hop back behind the driving seat, but you've just had a long journey. You could walk – but it's a fair way to the nearest shops, and you're just not feeling energetic.

Or perhaps you fancy a trip to a great restaurant in the nearest town. Trouble is, it's a bank holiday weekend, so you're going to find it hard to park – and there's no bus stop within easy reach of the campsite gates.

The simple solution to all these issues – and many more – is an e-bike. The latest e-bikes allow you to travel far and wide in complete comfort, and you can choose as much (or as little) electric assistance as you like.

SOMETHING FOR EVERY RIDER

Of course – and as with your caravan, tow car or motorhome – you'll want to go for a brand name that you know you can trust. Which is why you should take a look at the latest range from UK manufacturer Ribble.

This Lancashire-based manufacturer was born back in 1897, so builds more than 125 years of history into each bike.

But that doesn't mean you won't find the very latest models at Ribble: it has a fantastic range of e-bikes in a variety of geometries, via hybrid, road and off-road models. So no matter what type of e-bike you're looking for, Ribble has the perfect cycle for you.

CYCLE MILES IN COMFORT

As with electric vehicles, you might have a touch of range anxiety when it comes to electric bikes – what happens if you run out of power when you're a long way from your campsite? The answer to that is simple: you can simply cycle on as normal.

That said, Ribble e-bikes offer an amazing range, so it's not an issue that's ever likely to bother you. For example the Endurance SL e gives an average of around 60 miles – and with optional range extenders also available, there's no reason why you should ever run short on power. It's immediately available at the touch of a button, too.

SPEAK TO AN EXPERT

And that's not all: if you want your e-bike to be a specific colour or specification, then that option is also open to you. Alternatively, you can opt for Ribble's recommended specification.

To find out more about Ribble Cycles e-bikes, simply visit its website. You can also take a trip to one of its showrooms, where you'll be able to take advantage of its fantastic e-bike fitting service.

Finally, you can make a one-way video call with a Ribble Live Expert, and get all of the help and advice you need to get the e-bike of your dreams.

Find the perfect Ribble Cycle for you

➔ ELECTRIC ROAD BIKES

If you want a lightweight e-bike but don't want to compromise on style, the Ribble Endurance SL e is for you. It weighs in from only 10.5kg, so won't eat up your payload – and it'll be easy to lift onto your cycle rack, too.

Or perhaps you'd prefer the budget-friendly Endurance AL e. Not only is it a great price, it comes with a whole host of features – including a Shimano Tiagra groupset and Mavic wheels – to help you cycle further than ever before.

➔ ELECTRIC OFF-ROAD BIKES

On the other hand, you might want to hit the trail. In which case, take a look at the Ribble Gravel AL e. Tackling loose, technical terrain will prove a doddle on this aluminium-framed ebike, thanks to its huge tyre clearance and off-road ready components.

Then there's the Ribble CGR AL e. CGR stands for 'Cross/Gravel/Road', and the clue to this ebike's tremendous abilities lie in its name: no matter what surface you want to take on from your campsite, the CGR AL e has you covered.

➔ ELECTRIC HYBRID BIKES

If you prefer your cycling a little more serene, then Ribble's electric hybrid bikes will suit you down to the ground. The Hybrid AL e is perfect for quick trips to the shops, while the Hybrid AL e Step-Through offers all the practicality of a step-through frame. The Hybrid AL e Trail, meanwhile, is the rugged, go-anywhere cycle that's ideal for slightly rougher terrain.

Or perhaps you'll primarily be cycling around town; in which case, check out the Urban AL e. The traditional and chic style of the frame is complemented by the latest in cycling technology and a handy front rack, making your city journeys a breeze.

Northern Ireland

Inspirational natural beauty lies alongside a hub of cultural gems

This is a land of captivating landscapes, rich history and a robust cultural identity. Its capital, Belfast, is a vibrant city that showcases modern architecture, a burgeoning arts scene and a lively waterfront.

The Giant's Causeway, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, stands as a natural wonder on the dramatic Antrim Coast while the Mourne Mountains offer a picturesque backdrop to the south, attracting hikers and nature enthusiasts to their scenic trails.

The Ulster Museum in Belfast and the Titanic Belfast chart the region's history and the northern coastline is home to beautiful beaches and intriguing castles.

RIBBLE RECOMMENDED RIDES

BELFAST DOCKS TO LOUGHSHORE PARK

If you're looking for a primarily traffic-free cycle from lively Belfast, this is the one for you! This 7.5-mile section of National Cycle Route 93 starts in the city's Titanic Quarter, where you can learn all about the famous ship. From there, it's over the Sam Thompson Bridge and on to Sailortown, with its historic church, before you'll pedal on to Hazelbank Park. Then it's on to Loughshore Park, with its fabulous views over the water.

Annalong Holiday Park

Address 38 Kilkeel Road, Annalong, Newry BT34 4TJ
Web chestnuttholidayparks.com/holiday-park/annalong
Tel 028 4376 8248 Open 15 March - 31 October
Touring pitches 11 Pitch+2+hook-up £35

On Northern Ireland's popular south coast, this seafront site caters for touring vehicles and holiday home hire. The park is situated in the heart of Annalong, a harbour village home to restaurants and shops. The 11 touring pitches are positioned peacefully at the back of the park, affording them stunning sea views. Access to the centrally located facilities block, with accessible services, is good too. The site also welcomes four-legged friends and allows barbecues. With the Mourne Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty on the doorstep, Annalong is great for exploring the Mourne Mountains and the south coast.

You say

- > Very clean, fine views, lovely area. Great chippy nearby.
- > Super-helpful, friendly staff.

Chestnutt Holiday Park

Address 3 Grange Road, Kilkeel, Newry BT34 4LW
Web chestnuttholidayparks.com/holiday-park/chestnutt
Tel 028 4176 2653 Open 29 March - 29 September
Touring pitches 59 Pitch+2+hook-up £33

Against the glorious backdrop of the Mourne Mountains, this large park is a popular spot for families looking for a seaside break. The site benefits from direct access to the award-winning Cranfield Beach, where visitors can enjoy watersports such as paddleboarding. For fun onsite, children can use the large playground or multi-sport court, while adults can relax at the Beachcomber Café. Further afield, there is the Woodland Trust's Mourne Park, Silent Valley Mountain Park and some lovely beaches.

You say

- > Fantastic site with a lovely atmosphere and a great beach on your doorstep. Shop is well stocked and we had good food from the restaurant.
- > It's very clean and the staff are always willing to help.

Sandilands Holiday Park

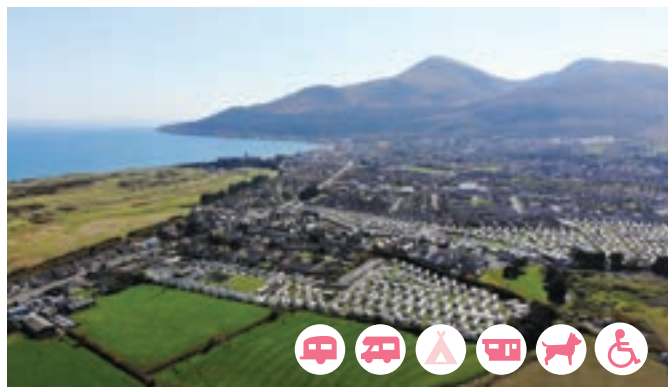

Address 30 Cranfield Road, Kilkeel, Newry BT34 4LJ
Web chestnuttholidayparks.com/holiday-park/sandilands
Tel 028 4176 3634 Open 15 March - 31 October
Touring pitches 31 Pitch+2+hook-up £35

This family-friendly park is a popular choice for summer holidaymakers. In a superb location between the mountains and the Irish sea, this expansive park offers touring pitches overlooking the sea, as well as holiday homes for rent. There is direct access to the beach, plus a play area for the children to blow off steam. Dogs are welcome, and the facilities include a central washroom block with accessible options. As the park is at the very southern tip of the Mourne Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, there are plenty of walking and cycling routes nearby.

You say

- > A lovely, quiet site with beach access. Great park for kids and very safe.
- > Fantastic facilities and wonderful people.

Windsor Holiday Park

Address 138 Dundrum Road, Newcastle, Co Down BT33 0LN
Web windsorholidaypark.co.uk
Tel 028 4372 3367 Open 15 March - 31 October
Touring pitches 31 Pitch+2+hook-up £35

Tucked away a mile in from the coast, this scenic park lies between Tollymore Forest Park and Murlough National Nature Reserve. As well as being surrounded by nature, the site is just a five-minute walk from the seaside town of Newcastle. Offering spacious pitches separated by grass, Windsor Holiday Park is well equipped; its facilities include heated washrooms, a children's play area and a small shop. You may be tempted by the views of the Mourne Mountains surrounding the site, so it's lucky they are just a short drive away!

You say

- > A well-maintained, child-friendly site. Really good disability facilities. The staff are amazing; I can't fault this site.
- > Always spotlessly clean and offering a friendly welcome.

FOCUS ON NORTHERN IRELAND

Mount Stewart

- > nationaltrust.org.uk/visit/northern-ireland

Mount Stewart is one of County Down's historic gems, renowned for its stunning gardens, magnificent house and picturesque setting. Tucked away on the eastern shores of Strangford Lough, the centrepiece of this grand estate is the splendid Georgian mansion, home to elegant architecture, opulent interiors and a fine art collection.

The ornate gardens are a dazzling array of exotic plants, vibrant flower borders and tranquil water features. Visitors can stroll along winding pathways, explore themed gardens and enjoy panoramic views across the lough. Mount Stewart also offers a range of events throughout the year.

National Trust / James Dobson

Murlough National Nature Reserve

- > nationaltrust.org.uk/visit/northern-ireland/murlough-national-nature-reserve

Murlough National Nature Reserve, tracing the coastline of south-east County Down, is a captivating ecological haven. Spanning some 600 hectares, it offers a mosaic of dunes, woodland, heathland and a 6000-year-old freshwater dune system, making it a sanctuary for flora and fauna, including many migrating birds. The reserve also hosts four miles of beach, as well as the Dundrum Coastal Path. Visitors can explore the intricate network of trails, while admiring panoramic views of the Mourne Mountains and the Irish Sea.

National Trust / Joe Cornish

Ballyness Caravan Park

Address 40 Castlecat Road, Bushmills BT57 8TN

Web ballynesscaravanpark.com Tel 028 2073 2393 Open 15 March - 3 November

Touring pitches 50 Pitch+2+hook-up £34

Set in the North Antrim countryside, this stunning site has regularly graced our annual guide, bagging the Regional Winner category several times. Competition was tight this year, but Ballyness' picturesque surroundings, first-class customer service and luxurious facilities have won it the top spot once again.

The immaculate hardstanding pitches are attractively arranged in three touring areas, each with its own electric, water and drainage hook-ups. The excellent amenities are housed in a cottage-style building.

Elsewhere on the site, children can make the most of a play park and football field, while dog-lovers can take their furry friends on the dedicated dog-walk. The historic village of Bushmills, with its pubs, cafés and shops, is a 15-minute walk from the site.

While the park itself has plenty of green space (and a duck pond), there's no shortage of opportunities to enjoy nature nearby. It's less than a 10-minute drive to the Causeway Coast, studded with beautiful sandy beaches and miles of breathtaking coastal paths. Belfast is just an hour's drive away, while the pretty harbour towns of Ballycastle and Portrush are closer to home.

You say

- > By far the best site we have ever visited. Very friendly staff, spotlessly clean site/pitches/facilities. Well located for local attractions and public transport.
- > Having stayed in numerous sites in the UK, Ireland and Europe, Ballyness is the best, by far.
- > This site is so peaceful and quiet even when it is full. The staff are very helpful. Ballyness is a joy to stay at.

Scotland

Stunning scenery and lively cities create a traveller's treasure trove

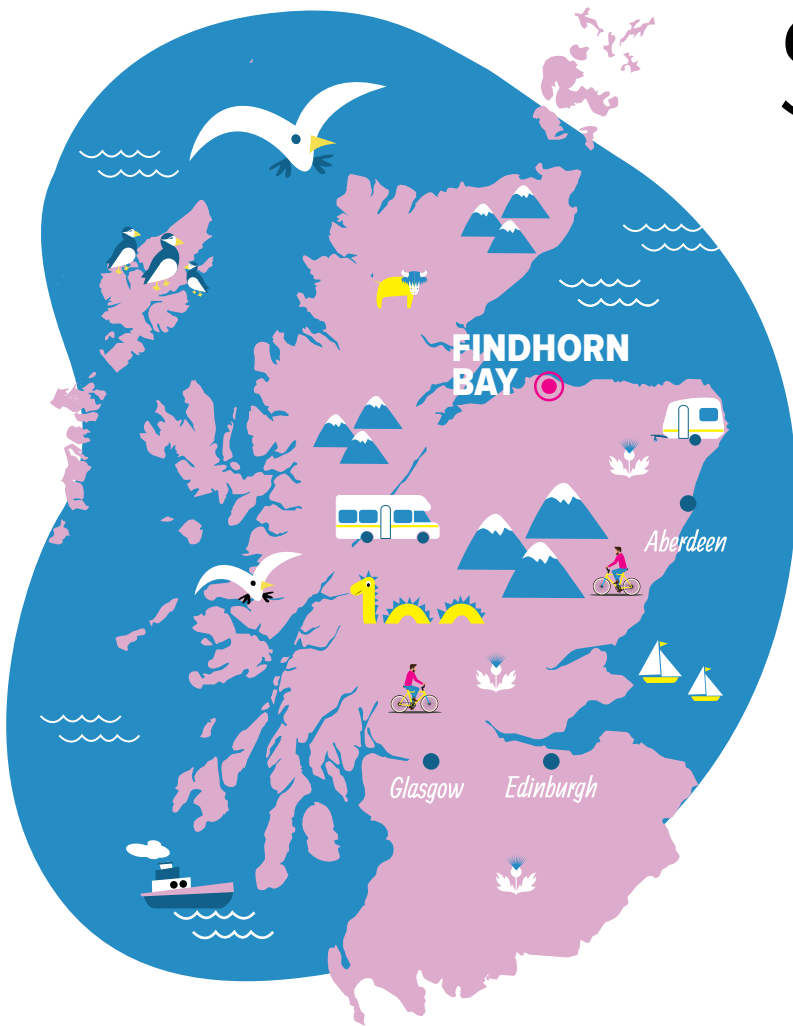

A land of rugged beauty and rich heritage, Scotland captivates visitors with its diverse landscapes, historic castles, and vibrant culture. The majestic Highlands, with their towering mountains and serene lochs, offer a breathtaking backdrop to the north.

Edinburgh is a city of striking contrast, blending medieval architecture with modern energy, while Glasgow is a hub of world-class art galleries, theatres and music. The country's islands, from the mystical Isle of Skye to the remote Orkney and Shetland archipelagos, brim with history and natural wonders.

RIBBLE RECOMMENDED RIDES

LOCH LEVEN HERITAGE TRAIL

Located between Edinburgh and Perth, close to Kinross, is beautiful Loch Leven – it teems with fabulous wildlife, and its circumference makes the perfect cycling route. Coming in at 13 miles in length, this shared-access trail is flat and almost entirely traffic-free. Along the way you'll be able to take in tremendous views across the water, and see the many creatures that call this glorious place home – you might spot swallows, geese and whooper swans, or even a red squirrel or two in woodland areas.

FOCUS ON... SCOTLAND

Fyvie Castle, Garden & Estate

› www.nts.org.uk/visit/places/fyvie-castle

Set against the beautiful backdrop of the Aberdeenshire countryside, Fyvie Castle offers a glimpse into the romance and history of Scotland's great heritage.

Whether exploring its ancient walls, delving into its ghostly tales or simply admiring its architectural glories, a visit to Fyvie Castle is sure to leave a lasting impression.

Since the 13th century, its owners have left their distinctive mark on the castle, giving it a unique blend of architectural styles, from the medieval keep to Jacobean and Georgian influences. The castle's legends and ghost stories have earned it a reputation as one of Scotland's most haunted castles.

Pitmedden Garden

› www.nts.org.uk/visit/places/pitmedden-garden

Magnificent Pitmedden Garden is a vibrant 17th-century Scottish Renaissance garden, next door to the Museum of Farming Life. Spread across 28 acres, it boasts manicured gardens filled with colourful floral displays, geometrically shaped beds and ornamental hedges.

The central Great Garden hosts over five miles of clipped boxwood hedges, while elsewhere is a biodiverse terrace, an orchard and woodland trails. Visitors can enjoy the herb garden, the sundial garden and the physic garden, before exploring the museum, which offers a fascinating glimpse of Scotland's horticultural and agricultural past.

Bridestones, Crosscliff and Blakey Topping

➤ nationaltrust.org.uk/visit/yorkshire

The Bridestones, Crosscliff and Blakey Topping are three distinct geological features nestled within the stunning landscapes of the North York Moors National Park. The Bridestones, a Jurassic rock formation of sandstone pillars, stand in scenic moorland. The towering stones have been shaped by millennia of wind and rain. Crosscliff is a dramatic escarpment that dominates the surroundings, providing breathtaking vistas of the moors. Perched on its edge, you can also explore the area's diverse flora and fauna in the heather moorland and ancient woods. The distinctive conical hill of Blakey Topping rises from the moorland, offering panoramic views of the dales below.

North-West England

Lively cities, a great industrial heritage and stunning scenery

Known for its rich industrial heritage, vibrant cities and stunning landscapes, North-West England is a diverse and dynamic region. Comprising counties such as Lancashire, Cheshire and Cumbria, it offers a wealth of cultural and outdoor experiences. Cities such as Liverpool and Manchester are hubs of historic industrial architecture and world-class museums, while the area's coastline boasts the sandy stretches of Crosby and Formby. Then there's that minor attraction known as the Lake District...

RIBBLE RECOMMENDED RIDES

LIVERPOOL LOOP LINE

Disused railway lines make great cycle paths for good reason: they're flat and invariably traffic-free. The 11-mile Liverpool Loop, which follows part of National Cycle Route 62, is one example: it runs from Halewood to Aintree, where you'll end your ride near the racecourse. Along the way you'll take in Gateacre, Knotty Ash and West Derby, but surrounded by trees, you won't feel as though you're in a major city.

Address Benwick Road, Doddington, Cambridgeshire PE15 0TY

Web fieldsendwater.co.uk Tel: 01354 740 199 Open 1 March - 30 November

Touring pitches 80 Pitch+2+hook-up From £25

Well done to Fields End Water, our new Regional Winner for Eastern England!

The adults-only campsite offers a relaxed and tranquil setting for taking in Cambridgeshire, with Ely, Peterborough, Duxford Imperial War Museum and RSPB Nene Washes all options to visit.

The site is ideal for keen anglers, with three well-stocked lakes offering a combined 70 swims. This includes Waterside, the newest addition, which is solely for the use of those who are pitched up around it, where spacious pitches offer beautiful views of the lake. Then there is The Pit, a 2.5-acre lake stocked with carp, crucian, tench, perch and roach, and The Pool, where carp, chubb, barbel, ide and tench can be found.

Site facilities include shower and toilet blocks, a launderette, a café and a shop. Dogs can make the most of one of the walks around the fishing lakes or the three-acre wood, as well as a fenced-off lead area. Alternatively, follow one of the public footpaths from the park to reach the Fens.

Trips around Cambridgeshire are made simpler by a bus stopping nearby, which heads towards Wisbech. Or you can walk the 1.5-miles into Doddington, a village with two pubs, a fish-and-chip shop and a post office.

You say

- An excellent, clean and friendly site. And the fishing? Well, I didn't see my husband for hours each day...
- The lakeside pitches are wonderful – it's lovely to wake up by the water.
- The facilities and site layout are very well thought through and the organisation by staff is excellent.

Heart of England

Shakespeare, splendid walks and a trip into the nation's past

The region that is home to England's oldest university and smallest county, as well as Shakespeare's birthplace, certainly has lots to offer, with the plentiful supply of history matched by the vibrant views. Cities and market towns abound, including Birmingham, Nottingham, Oxford, Shrewsbury and Stratford-upon-Avon. Alternatively, visit some of the beautiful walking destinations, such as the Peak District National Park and the Shropshire Hills. Enjoy the history of the area too, with sights such as Ironbridge, Blenheim Palace and Warwick Castle. Don't forget a certain bi-annual caravan and motorhome show, either...

THE LIAS LINE

Connecting Leamington Spa with the town of Rugby, the Lias Line is the longest traffic-free greenway in Warwickshire, at 23 miles in length. It takes in a section of National Cycle Network Route 41, and is a fantastic trail on which to spot wonderful wildlife. Along the way you'll pedal through historic Long Itchington, and pass the 630-acre Draycote Water reservoir, which you can also choose to cycle around. The route takes in part of the Grand Union Canal towpath, too.

Web eyekettlebylakes.com Tel 01664 565 900 Open All year
Touring pitches 130 Pitch+2+hook-up From £34

Last year's Overall Winner stands at the edge of Melton Mowbray, in 150 acres of countryside, providing tranquillity and natural beauty. The site is a dream for anglers, with a total of nine lakes – two specimen carp lakes, six mixed coarse-fishing lakes and a private lake which is solely for lodge residents. While families can stay in the log cabins, the touring park itself is adults-only. Pitches are spread across two main sections; the southern site, which is by a 4.5-acre specimen carp lake and houses private bathrooms in stone buildings, and the northern site, which provides individual bathrooms in log cabin-style blocks.

Head to the clubhouse to enjoy a local ale or choose from the wide selection of gins – breakfast and lunch are also served here. Dogs won't feel left out, either, as there is a dedicated pet-friendly lounge, ideal for relaxing in after using the two secure dog-walks and the warm dog-washes.

There is plenty to do in the area – head to Melton Country Park for a walk in its 137 acres, or enjoy an excursion to Leicester or Nottingham. Alternatively, visit some of the nearby market towns, such as Loughborough, Market Harborough and Oakham.

You say

- This site never fails to tick all the boxes. No other campsite has come close to Eye Kettleby.
- A welcoming site with excellent facilities. We fished and were impressed with how well the lakes were maintained and the condition of the fish.
- Never lets us down. Always five-star standards.

South-East England

Vibrant cities, iconic landmarks and spectacular landscapes

South-East England, steeped in history and cultural richness, combines the allure of vibrant cities, historic landmarks and scenic landscapes. The sprawling capital is packed with iconic landmarks like the Tower of London and Buckingham Palace. Beyond London, the region encompasses charming counties such as Kent, Surrey and Sussex. The White Cliffs of Dover offer dramatic coastal views, while Canterbury boasts a magnificent cathedral. Surrey is dotted with pretty villages, and Sussex is renowned for towns like Brighton and Lewes.

THE VIKING TRAIL
This dramatic 20-mile route stretching along the north Kent coast from near Ramsgate to Reculver Country Park has plenty of interest along the way. Heading westward, it follows clifftop paths to link numerous bays and coves en route to Ramsgate and Broadstairs. The ride will also take you through Margate and along the sea wall to Westgate-on-Sea. Once you reach the country park, take the time to view the large populations of migratory birds.

Dorset

Fossils, beaches and a glorious abundance of wonderful views

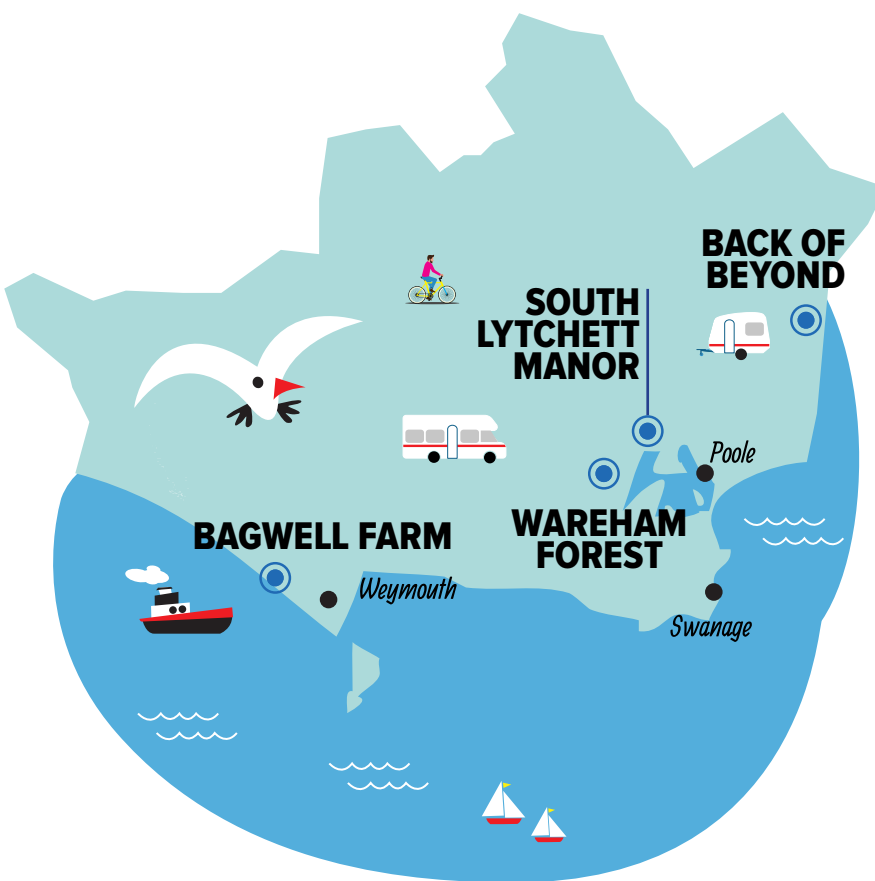

Home to the fossil beaches of the Jurassic Coast and the starting point (or finish line) of the South West Coast Path, Dorset is a region of breathtaking views, jawdropping coast and picturesque walks.

Take in the sights of Chesil Beach, Durdle Door and Lulworth Cove, or visit sites of interest like Corfe Castle. Fancy exploring the seaside towns? Bournemouth, Christchurch and Weymouth are just three of the options. Literary fans can take the opportunity to visit many of the locations mentioned in Thomas Hardy's works, too.

RIBBLE RECOMMENDED RIDES

MAIDEN NEWTON TO DORCHESTER

This pleasant ride alongside the River Frome is a gentle pedal of just under nine miles. Starting at Maiden Newton railway station, it takes in pretty villages such as Frampton, where you can see a bridge designed by Sir Christopher Wren. A mixture of paths and country roads eventually leads you to charming Dorchester, having passed the towns of Bradford Peverell and Charminster along the way.

Corfe Castle

Address The Square, Corfe Castle, Wareham, Dorset BH20 5EZ

Despite being partially destroyed by the Parliamentarians during the English Civil War in the 17th century, majestic Corfe Castle still makes an awe-inspiring destination. The site dates back to the days of William the Conqueror, and as well as offering visitors the chance to discover the castle's long history, provides beautiful views across Purbeck, including towards the Isle of Wight. Break up your explorations with a picnic by the Corfe River, or head to the 18th-century tea-room and garden.

Adults-only Back of Beyond deserves special recognition for securing its Regional Winner title for a fifth consecutive year.

This picturesque 30-acre campsite provides a tranquil getaway against a backdrop of birdsong. There's plenty to see in the surrounding area, including the nearby New Forest National Park, which can be explored on foot or by bike. The town of Ringwood is only a 10-minute drive away, with a great selection of shops, pubs and eateries. Alternatively, visitors can enjoy a trip to Bournemouth, Christchurch, Salisbury or Dorchester.

There are also fishing spots in the area, including along the Moors River on the park's boundary (a rod licence is required). Guests can explore the 18 acres of woodland at Back of Beyond, including the area around the wildlife lakes, which is a Site of Special Scientific Interest. Then at night, look up at the clear sky and enjoy some peaceful stargazing.

Dogs are welcome at Monty's Bar, which is open throughout the season. Other amenities include a well-stocked shop, four heated facility blocks and a pitch and putt course. Food vendors regularly stop by.

For 2024, the site is upgrading, to offer large, fully serviced pitches and two EV charging points.

You say

- > The most superb site I have ever stayed at.
- > The site is very welcoming, clean and tidy. Monty's Bar was fantastic and the visiting food trucks were great, saving me having to cook.
- > Beautiful site with a very dog-friendly environment.

Somerset, Avon & Wiltshire

Rich history, legendary landscapes and spectacular city architecture

Somerset, Avon and Wiltshire form a picturesque and historically rich region. Somerset is renowned for its landscapes, including iconic Glastonbury Tor and the peaceful Levels. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, Bath has elegant Georgian architecture, ancient Roman Baths and the impressive Abbey, while Wiltshire is home to the mighty Stonehenge.

Somerset's charming villages offer a glimpse of rural life, while vibrant Bristol presents its maritime heritage and contemporary arts scene. Wiltshire's fine old market towns, such as Salisbury, showcase beautiful medieval architecture and a rich cultural offering.

RIBBLE RECOMMENDED RIDES

BATH TWO TUNNELS CIRCUIT

This is a fantastic cycling route if you're looking for a fun family adventure. The 13-mile loop takes you from the centre of historic Bath through two tunnels, over the spectacular Tucking Mill Viaduct. It passes the Dundas Aqueduct on the Kennet & Avon Canal, until you are back beside the River Avon. Cycling the Combe Down Tunnel is a real treat – at just over a mile, it is the UK's longest cycling tunnel.

Arlington Court and the National Trust Carriage Museum

Address Arlington, near Barnstaple, Devon EX31 4LP
 This beautiful Regency house was built in 1823 and stands on the outskirts of Exmoor. There are 20 miles of footpaths to enjoy, including a two-mile stretch that forms a delightful lakeside walk, incorporating bridge piers. As you explore, take in the vast array of local wildlife, especially the two bat species residing in the cellars, the splendid heronry and the bird hide. Don't miss the Carriage Museum, housed in the stables, where historic vehicles range from coaches for state occasions to transport that the servants used.

 The destination that Agatha Christie called "the loveliest place in the world" is a fine Georgian house, built in the late 18th century on the site of a Tudor mansion. The house is decorated in 1950s style and is home to a wide variety of objects relating to the famous writer – including first editions of her novels – who stayed there on holiday. Explore the peach house and vinery in the walled gardens, and the boathouse that overlooks the River Dart and features in Dead Man's Folly. Don't forget the battery, which would have been built as a form of defence during the 1790s, either.

Huge congratulations to our Regional Winner for Devon, Newberry Valley Park! The 60-acre campsite lies on the outskirts of the pretty village of Combe Martin, in a setting of woodland and fields.

The site offers spacious pitches, including premier hardstanding pitches, which are block-paved and come with a bollard, hook-up, a water tap, a waste drain and a picnic bench.

Facilities include a play park, a dog field, 11 heated shower rooms, a dishwashing area, a launderette and a shop, as well as a disabled-access shower room and a baby-changing area. Fishing is also available in the two-acre lake (a rod licence is required).

The site is home to a range of wildlife, with rabbits, badgers, owls, pheasants and deer among the animals you might see – and don't forget to say hello to the campsite's four resident alpacas, either!

Visit Combe Martin to take in the beauty of the Devon coast as you try kayaking or paddleboarding. Walkers can join the South West Coast Path or head to the gorgeous scenery of nearby Exmoor.

The site has been busy carrying out improvements for 2024, with upgrades to its Wi-Fi and the water flow to the facilities block. The children's play park has also had some new additions.

You say

- Great location in a valley setting, with good facilities and convenient for the South West Coast Path.
- Perfect location and a beautifully presented site with high-quality amenities and fantastic staff.
- Immaculately kept and a short walk from the beach.

Cornwall

Breathtaking coastlines, sandy beaches and a long, rich past

Cornwall is a region with something for everyone, whether you want to find breathtaking beaches, visit characterful fishing villages, soak up some history or simply enjoy the superb surfing.

It's a dream for walkers who want to venture into glorious scenery, including the beauty of the South West Coast Path and atmospheric Bodmin Moor.

Explore the charming coastal towns, take to the waves, relax on a picture-perfect beach, or find out about the area's smuggling past at Jamaica Inn. Don't miss Tintagel's great Arthurian legends!

RIBBLE RECOMMENDED RIDES

BODMIN TO THE EDEN PROJECT

A delightful 10-mile jaunt across the Cornish countryside, which takes in the National Trust property of Lanhydrock – a country house that was devastated by a fire in 1881 and then refurbished in grand Victorian style. From there, you pass the large wetland complex at Helman Tor Geological Site and Nature Reserve. Finally, you reach the Eden Project, where those arriving by bike receive a discount on entry.

Congratulations to our Regional Winner for Cornwall, now reigning supreme for the third consecutive year!

Set in nine acres of fine countryside on the stunning Lizard Peninsula – an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty – Silver Sands offers a peaceful environment for taking in some of the many highlights of the region.

Site facilities include a shower and toilet block, a launderette, a play area for children, and a one-acre dog-walk. Pitches come with electric hook-up and water connection, with young trees or shrubs marking them out. Small campfires are permitted on touring and camping pitches.

The site works hard to help the environment and has won a David Bellamy Gold Conservation Award, as well as Wildflower Habitat and Hedge Habitat badges.

For 2024, Silver Sands has refurbished its reception and is now providing free Wi-Fi across the site. There is also the option of bike hire, for easier exploration of the surrounding area.

From the site, embark on the 1km woodland walk through Gwendreath Valley to reach beautiful Kennack Sands. Visitors will be able to stroll to the local bar for refreshments, while the many towns and villages to see include Falmouth, Porthallow and Porthleven.

Overall Winner

'Picturesque surroundings, first-class customer service and luxurious facilities have won it the top spot'

1 BALLYNESS CARAVAN PARK

HUGE CONGRATULATIONS to Ballyness Caravan Park, the winner of our Top 100 Sites 2024!

Set in the North Antrim countryside, the stunning site has regularly graced our annual guide, bagging the Regional Winner category several times.

Competition was very close this year, but Ballyness's picturesque surroundings, first-class customer service and luxurious facilities have won it the top spot.

The park's immaculate hardstandings are attractively arranged in three areas, each with its own electric, water and drainage hook-ups. The excellent amenities are housed in a cottage-style building, with modern toilets and showers. There is also a family room with bath and showers available, plus an accessible shower room.

Children will enjoy the onsite play park and football field, while dog-lovers can use the dedicated dog-walk. On rainy days, there's an indoor games and TV room.

The historic village of Bushmills is a 15-minute walk from the site, where you can find pubs, cafés and shops.

The park has plenty of green space and a duck pond, but there's no shortage of opportunities to enjoy nature nearby. It's less than a 10-minute drive to the famous Causeway Coast, studded with beautiful beaches and miles of breathtaking coastal paths.

The Causeway Rambler Bus (running from June to September) stops just outside the site. If you're looking for a bit of bustle, the vibrant city of Belfast is an hour's drive from the campsite, while the charming harbour towns of Ballycastle and Portrush are closer to home.

SUMMER ACTIVITIES

Longer days and warmer weather mean it's time to try something new, says Marcus Leach

WITH THE SUMMER here at last, many of us are planning at least a few weeks away. For some people, this could mean booking the Channel Tunnel crossing, loading up the car or the 'van and setting off on a European adventure full of discoveries and activities.

But touring overseas is not everybody's cup of tea, and there are many of us who enjoy exploring closer to home.

Abundance of adventure

That doesn't, however, mean that there has to be any lack of adventure, or indeed any worry about what you're going to do on your travels to keep everybody in the family entertained this summer.

As many leisure vehicle owners have been rediscovering in the past few years, there's an abundance of great places to visit, things to see and activities to enjoy throughout the UK – it's simply a case of heading out to find something new.

To start you off, here are just a few of our favourite summer activities.

1 Lavender fields

There's something very French about great fields of lavender, their enchanting aroma filling the warm afternoon air as you pass row upon row of vibrant purple flowers. Now, thanks to a growing number of lavender fields in the UK (A), this is an experience you can find near at hand.

How Contact Mayfield Lavender (mayfieldlavender.com) to find out about activities they are running

Where North Surrey Hills, or check out www.visitbritain.com/gb/en/englands-loveliest-lavender-fields

2 Wildlife safari

Mention of the word 'safari' is enough to conjure up visions of Africa and herds of animals roaming free. But did you know you can join a safari in the UK? We're not talking about enclosed parks, either.

From whales and dolphins off the coast of Yorkshire or falcons in the Durham Dales, through to basking sharks off the Isle of Mull and deer and ponies in the New Forest (B), there's a huge variety of wildlife viewing options.

How Contact Yorkshire Coast Nature (yorkshirecoastnature.co.uk) about whale- and dolphin-watching trips

Where North and East Yorkshire

3 Gorge scrambling

Looking to enjoy something a little more adventurous? Why not head to the Brecon Beacons and try your hands (and feet) at gorge scrambling?

This is a great activity for adults and older children, and involves making your way up or down a river gorge by climbing, walking, scrambling and swimming. Perfect as part of an outdoor-focused trip to one of the UK's most beautiful national parks.

How Contact Adventures Wales (www.adventureswales.co.uk) to book your gorge scrambling experience

Where Bannau Brycheiniog National Park, South Wales

'There's an abundance of great places to visit, things to see and activities to enjoy throughout the UK – it's simply a case of heading out to discover something new'

4 Geocaching

Who doesn't love an old-fashioned treasure hunt? That is what geocaching is, in essence, only you don't get to keep the treasure. You do get all the fun of the hunt and immersion in beautiful countryside.

This advanced form of treasure hunting uses GPS technology to track down a huge range of secret caches (C) located all over the UK (and the world, if you are planning to roam further from home).

How Download the Geocaching app and you are ready to get started! Find out more from Geocaching Association of Great Britain (gagb.org.uk).

Where Cairngorms National Park, north-east Scotland

5 Segway off-roading

There are times when a leisurely walk in the woods is all we need, but sometimes we also thirst for activities with a bit more adrenaline. So why not try an off-road Segway in the woods this summer?

Great fun for all the family, and you will discover a whole new way of moving along beautiful woodland tracks and trails on these purpose-built off-road versions of the popular Segway scooter.

How Forest Segway with Go Ape (www.goape.co.uk)

Where Forest of Dean, Gloucestershire

6 Stone Skimming World Championships

Ever wanted to be crowned world champion but lacked the sporting prowess? Stone skipping might be the perfect sport to chance your arm at (no pun intended), given that anybody can enter, no matter your age or skill level. What's more, it's an activity that can be enjoyed all year.

The world championships take place in old slate quarries on Easdale Island, where there's an abundance of skipping stones. Of course, you can visit at any time of year to while away the hours skipping stones across the tranquil waters (D).

How Visit stoneskimming.com for full details on entering the tournament

Where Easdale Island, Scotland

7 Fossil hunting

Contained in the earth beneath our feet is a long and rich history, much of which is locked into fossils that anybody can discover, and there's no better place for keen fossil-hunters to head than the world-famous Jurassic Coast (E).

Stretching from Exmouth in Devon all the way to Studland Bay in Dorset, the Jurassic Coast has rocks dating back over 185 million years – which translates to rather a lot of fossils.

Although it is worth mentioning that fossil hunting is a game of patience, you might just make the next big discovery – be sure to stick to local safety advice, though.

How Contact Lyme Regis Museum (lymeregismuseum.co.uk) to book an expertly guided fossil walk

Where Lyme Regis, Jurassic Coast >>

8 Stargazing

Head away from our towns and cities and something magical happens at night, when a plethora of otherwise hidden stars becomes visible against the darkening skies.

Most of the UK's national parks have dark sky viewing areas where you can take in the constellations (F), and Dark Skies Festivals run throughout the year.

With the sun setting later in summer, you will need to stay up a little longer to see the true majesty of the night sky, but it is well worth the wait.

9 Rockpooling

There's something quite enchanting for children (and adults, for that matter) about turning over rocks on the beach to discover crabs, starfish and sea anemones, to name just a few of the curiosities you can find in rockpools.

As far as activities go, this one is as easy as could be – simply arm yourselves with buckets and small nets, and away you go to reveal the fascinating delights hidden in these marine mini-worlds.

10 Zorbing

If rolling down a steep hillside at exhilarating speeds while remaining cocooned inside a giant inflatable ball sounds like your idea of fun, it's time for you to give zorbing a go. Originating from New Zealand, this very entertaining adrenaline sport has grown in popularity in the UK over recent years.

Alternatively, if you prefer your outdoor activities a little more on the sedate side, you can simply enjoy a coffee and watch proceedings from a comfortable distance while your thrill-seeking relatives hurtle head over heels downhill!

11 Magic and witchcraft

Tucked away in deepest Cornwall is a village that was putting spells on people long before we were bewitched by Harry Potter and his friends.

For those intrigued by the eerie and the unexplained, the village of Boscastle should be on your 'must visit' list this summer, for it's here that you'll find the Museum of Witchcraft and Magic – as well as some of the most dramatic coastal scenery in England.

Depending on when you visit, there are also candlelit viewings and ghost stories to enjoy – if you're brave enough.

12 Mail Rail Tunnel Walk

The summer holidays are not exclusively about the great outdoors and coastal getaways; for some, they are a very welcome opportunity to head to the city. If that includes your family, then be sure to explore a different side to London (other cities are available!) this year.

The Postal Museum offers fascinating tunnel walks deep underground, giving a unique insight into how its 100-year-old railway delivery service once operated, until the closure of the tunnel network back in 2003.

13 Sea kayaking

Contrary to popular belief, sea kayaking (G) is not all about waves and rough waters. In fact, it's the exact opposite – a way to explore corners and crevices of the coast that are inaccessible on foot or in a larger boat, and all in a surprisingly tranquil manner.

There are many companies on the coast offering kayaking lessons and excursions for beginners, so make this the summer when you pick up your paddle and gain a different perspective on our coastline.

14 Hot air ballooning

As any bird would tell you if they could, there's a feeling of great serenity to be found floating high above the world (H), looking down on the scene below, perfectly detached from it all.

With longer evenings in the summer months, it's the perfect time to take off on a memorable adventure that will give you a totally different perspective of our green and pleasant land – and it's not as expensive as you might think.

AL FRESCO DINING

One of the many great pleasures of summertime touring is enjoying a meal in the open air. Here are two of our favourite easy-to-make recipes

HUMMUS

A dish so deliciously iconic, the whole world continues to debate about its origins

A chickpea and tahini delight, hummus is so widely adored that everyone, from the Greeks to the Turks to the North Africans to the Arabs, claims it as their own. The argument over the origin of this humble staple has been raging since ancient times and will no doubt continue long into the future. A related gastronomic battle has also seen countries compete to make the largest bowl of hummus – a Guinness World Record that Lebanon has held since 2010, thanks to a rather staggering 10,452kg (11.5t) serving.

The historic origins of the dish can be traced back through many cookbooks to 13th-century Egypt, but the intriguing legend is that it was originally created by 12th-century sultan Saladin.

top tip...

Dried chickpeas can be replaced with tinned varieties: simply skip the soaking process and forgo the use of bicarbonate of soda

INGREDIENTS

Serves 4

Prep 10 minutes

Rest 10 hours

Cook 1 hour

- ❑ 400g/14oz/2 cups chickpeas, dried
- ❑ 1.5 tsp bicarbonate of soda
- ❑ 5 heaped tbsp good-quality tahini
- ❑ 1 lemon, juiced
- ❑ 1 clove garlic, crushed
- ❑ Pinch salt
- ❑ Extra-virgin olive oil, to garnish
- ❑ Paprika, to taste

RECIPE

STEP 1 Rinse the chickpeas and place in a bowl with twice the volume of cold water. Add 1 tsp bicarbonate of soda, stir and soak overnight.

STEP 2 Drain the chickpeas and rinse thoroughly under cold water.

STEP 3 Fill a large saucepan with cold water, then add the chickpeas and 1/2 tsp bicarbonate of soda. Place on a high heat and bring to the boil, then cover the saucepan and allow to simmer for about one hour. Check regularly and remove any white foam that forms on top of the water.

STEP 4 To check if the chickpeas are cooked, crush one between your fingers. If it crushes easily and feels smooth, they are ready.

STEP 5 Stir the chickpeas vigorously to loosen the skins and skim away any that come off.

STEP 6 Drain the chickpeas and reserve some of the cooking water. Rinse thoroughly.

STEP 7 Set a few chickpeas aside for garnish. Blitz the rest in a mini (low-wattage) food processor for one minute. Add the tahini, lemon juice, garlic and salt, then blitz again. Stop to scrape down the sides, then continue blitzing until the mixture is smooth. If it's too thick, add 1 tbsp of the chickpea cooking water to thin.

STEP 8 Serve the hummus in a bowl, drizzled with extra-virgin olive oil, sprinkled with paprika and garnished with whole chickpeas.

PAELLA

This blend of chicken, chorizo and seafood in aromatic rice is a new twist on a Spanish classic

No dish in the world can divide people quite like paella: purists forbid any change at all from the age-old recipe, insisting on the ingredients and methods as prescribed by centuries of tradition.

Meanwhile, non-conformists take a more interpretative approach to preparing this renowned dish. To some, the addition of chorizo is an act of culinary heresy!

Although our recipe deviates from the age-old version, we've adhered more or less to the authentic method, with a few small – no less heretic – twists, including the controversial chorizo, as well as using some more accessible alternatives, such as chicken instead of rabbit or snails.

Traditional paella is, of course, cooked in a specialised, two-handled pan, but on tour, a large, deep frying pan should suffice.

Serves 4

Prep 10 minutes

Cook 45 minutes

- ❑ 2 tbsp olive oil
- ❑ 4 skinless, boneless chicken thighs
- ❑ 1 tsp salt
- ❑ 1 tsp pepper
- ❑ 75g/2oz/1 cup chorizo, roughly sliced
- ❑ 1 medium white onion, diced
- ❑ 2 medium cloves garlic, diced
- ❑ 2 tomatoes, roughly chopped
- ❑ 1 tbsp smoked paprika
- ❑ Large pinch saffron
- ❑ 300g/10oz/1 cup paella rice (arborio rice will also work)
- ❑ 1 litre/42 fl oz/5 cups stock (chicken, seafood or vegetable)
- ❑ 100g/3oz/1 cup frozen peas
- ❑ 6 king prawns
- ❑ 8 mussels
- ❑ Lemon wedges, to serve

top tip...

To extract the full flavour of saffron, soak the strands in some hot (not boiling) water for around 10 minutes before use

RECIPE

STEP 1 Set the hob to medium temperature and heat your oil in a large frying pan. While the oil is heating, season the chicken thighs with salt and pepper. Add the chicken to the pan, frying gently until the pieces are lightly browned all over.

STEP 2 Add the chorizo and continue frying for about 1-2 minutes until it releases its oils. Remove the chicken and the chorizo and set aside, leaving the juices in the pan.

STEP 3 Add the diced onion to the saucepan and fry until it becomes soft and semi-translucent. Then add the garlic, chopped tomatoes, paprika and saffron, and cook for a couple of minutes.

STEP 4 Return the chicken and chorizo to the saucepan, including any juices that have been released. Add the rice to the dish and allow that to fry for 1-2 minutes.

STEP 5 Pour in the stock and give your dish a quick stir to ensure all of the rice is covered with stock. Check the cooking time of the rice on its packaging, and leave to simmer on a low heat, without stirring.

STEP 6 Once the rice is about done, add the peas, prawns and mussels. If you wish, place a lid on the pan to steam the seafood.

STEP 7 Once the prawns have turned pink and the mussels have opened (pick out and discard any that remain closed), the dish is ready to serve. Garnish your paella with a few lemon wedges and enjoy! **>>
